

Viva Aerobus configures flights 100% freighters

Mexico City, April 16, 2020. –In order to adapt to current demand and meet the needs of the health emergency following the outbreak of COVID-19, Viva Aerobus temporarily configured 10 Airbus A320 passenger aircraft to perform flights 100% freighters.

Each aircraft, considering the space in the cabin (seats) and lower compartments, reaches a capacity of up to 19 tons of cargo. Currently, the airline transports all types of cargo to and from Mexico City, Monterrey, Guadalajara, Queretaro, Merida, Tijuana, San Jose del Cabo and Cancun; and soon to Ciudad Juarez, Culiacan and Oaxaca.

“We want to meet the needs of the airline industry by supporting supply chains and assisting households in Mexico, so that supplies, products, medicines and humanitarian aid continue to fly through the Mexican skies and reach their destinations as soon as possible” , said Juan Carlos Zuazua, CEO of Viva Aerobus.

Viva Aerobus entered the air freight market at the end of 2019, a service it offers through the provider Aerocharter, the company responsible for the entire shipping process, contemplating customer service and sales.

Individuals and companies can make the price quotation and hiring of the service to the indicated cities, with the possibility of reviewing other destinations upon express request, at the different shipping points and customer service phone numbers found on the Viva Cargo website: <https://www.vivaerobus.com/mx/volar-con-viva/viva-cargo> or by sending their request to the email: ventas@aerocharter.com.mx

Viva Aerobus is Mexico's low-cost airline. It started operations in 2006 and today operates the youngest Latin American fleet with 37 Airbus A320 in 127 non-stop routes (105 national and 22 international) to 52 destinations (38 national y 14 internationals). With a clear vision to give all people the opportunity to fly, Viva Aerobus has democratized the airline industry with the lowest rates in México and the lowest costs in Latin America, making their flights the best value offer.
